

Last Updated:01 May 16

American Advanced Association of Cost Engineers international- UAE Branch Signs MOU with SELEM DMCC

American Advanced Association of Cost Engineers International – Dubai Branch, represented by Eng. Maged Al Hawary, President and Smart Engineering Leadership and Excellence in Management (SELEM DMCC) represented by Mr. Maged Farouk Hanna, Managing Director & CEO signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) at SELEM Office in Dubai.

Mr. Maged Farouk Hanna, Managing Director and CEO of SELEM said "The vision of SELEM is to provide "The Best Smart Practices in Engineering Leadership and Excellence in Management". Through its privilege position and effective role in the local and international partnerships, SELEM plays a pioneering role in Cooperate Social responsibility through organizing different free initiatives for the engineering sector, to create a platform for transfer expertise locally and internationally, also playing an essential role through the team of consultant and Experts which they develop the human capabilities, and enhance the economy of the city.

Eng. Maged Al Hawary, President, American Advanced Association of Cost Engineers International – Dubai Branch, said "signing this MOU is very important in Developing and enriching the field of Project management and cost control, through providing the technical support and the expertise for training and seminars to Enhance the company's performance and the individuals achieving excellence in the construction field."

About SELEM DMCC

Smart Engineering Leadership & Excellence in Management is founded in 2016 with its vision "The Best Smart Practices in Engineering Leadership and Excellence in Management". SELEM is engaged in project development, management and feasibilities studies consultancies, cost control and risk management services, surveying and evaluating services, conferences and seminars organization, training institute and international testing center in partnership with several global partners in the industry.

© Press Release 2016